On the subject of the grant of rewards to police officers—

Pp. 170-171 of the Police orders.

Para 246 of the Police Orders of the C.P.M. Station of Bangalore deals with the Subject of "rewards."

2. The last sentence of Art 736 of the Civil Service Regulations referred to in the letter lays down that any servant of Government is eligible to receive without special permission, any reward payable in accordance with the provisions of any Act or Regulation or rules framed under such Enactments.

3 The views and suggestions of the District Superintendent of Police of C.P.M. Station of Bangalore may be invited with regard to the suggested rule.

from the District Supdt of Police, Coimbatore, to the Inspr G. Bg.

If approved, the D.S. may be authorised to sanction rewards up to Rs 25/- in the case of Police officers of the rank of Sub Inspector or below. Rewards to Inspectors will continue as hitherto to be granted by the President. Rules to this effect may be incorporated in the Bangalore Police orders.

The draft orders framed by the D.S. Supdt of Police seem to be somewhat cumbersome in the rules may if approved run as follows under order 246 (6) of the Bangalore Police orders:-

246(6)(i) - Rewards shall, as a rule, be given for service of special merit, but not for detecting work of the usual kind unaccompanied by personal risk or the exercise of ~~extraordinary~~ marked skill or intelligence.

246.(6)(ii) - Rewards in connection with cases brought to trial shall not be granted until the termination of the trial or of the appeal if appeal proceedings are instituted. Recommendations asking for such rewards should contain information regarding the sentence passed and the observations, if any, made by the Court on the conduct of the Police.

in Mysore, Bangalore.

The District Magistrate and the First Assistant to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore. Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to suggest for favour of your consideration a change in Police Orders 11 and 12.

The first lays down that the Sub-Inspector in charge of the Recruits' School should also be in charge of the Stores. This, in my opinion, is a bad distribution of duties. The Recruits School requires the full time of the Sub-Inspector in charge and it is ill-advised that he should divide his time and attention between the two, for, in that case the work in neither can be well done.

The Reserve Sub-Inspector has practically nothing to do during office hours. I therefore propose that he should be put in charge of the Stores in addition to his other duties as is the case in the Madras Mofussil. He has ample time for it.

Police Order 12 lays down that the Reserve Sub-Inspector shall be a European. The pay of a 5th grade (lowest grade) Sub-Inspector is 50/-. The pay of the other grades is 60/- 70/- 80/- and 100/- respectively. Promotion is slow. The Reserve Sub-Inspector requires to have had special training which the other Sub-Inspectors do not get; and, moreover, it is very seldom there is a European Sub-Inspector in the town available for transfer to the Reserve. Therefore when a Reserve Sub-Inspector is appointed he must be a new man and will come into the 50/- grade. Now this pay is not sufficient to attract the right class of European. Promotion into the higher grades is very slow. The late European Sub-Inspector, who has just retired, was an utter failure. I have just enlisted as a Head Constable the Quarter Master Havildar of the 61st Pioneers, a native Christian. He has Military training and has long experiance in the management of stores and therefore seems well suited for the post of Sub-Inspector in charge of the Reserve and Stores. In anticipation of your sanction of a deviation from the Police Order, I have appointed him to act in that office.

I suggest for your consideration the deletion of the word European occurring in the Order (P.O.12) or if that does not meet with your approval, that as a special case an exemption may be made in favour of Quarter Master Havildar Michael. He has not yet been discharged on pension from his Regiment, but has been allowed to enlist in the Police pending discharge, in case he desires to return.

I enclose suggested amendments of Police Orders 11 and 12.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

District Superintendent of Police.

Amendments to Police Orders

In P.O. No.11, in the heading "Store and School Sub-Inspector" delete the words "store and".

Re-write P.O. No.11 (a) as follows:-

(a) The School Sub-Inspector will be in charge of the recruits under training and the Anthropometrical department, and will maintain the necessary registers connected with the school and anthropometry.

In P.O. No.12, in the heading delete the word "European".

In P.O. No.12, in line 1, delete the words "be a European and will"

At the end of the order add the words "He will also be in charge of the Stores, maintain the necessary registers and conduct the destribution of clothing and accoutrements and undertake all executive duties connected with the store department. He will be personally responsible for all stores under his charge.

Excise Act,

Act XII of 1896.

26A

After Police Order No.26, insert as P.O. 26 A.

(1) All police officers should bear in mind that it is the duty of the Police Force to aid the Excise authorities in every way and to work with Excise Officers as one body. The proper and efficient working of the Excise Laws forms an integral and important part of their police duties.

(2) They should report at once all breaches of the Excise Laws that come to their notice in the discharge of their ordinary duties and should seize any contraband articles they may discover.

(3) All such cases, detected by the Police, will ordinarily be investigated and prosecuted by the Excise Officers but any cases left in the hands of the Police must be dealt with promptly and in precisely the same manner as ordinary Police cases.

(4) Similarly, Excise cases handed over to the Police for investigation must be handled with as much zeal and care as if they were Police cases. Any lack of interest or display of departmental jealousy will be severely noticed.

(5) When the help of the Police is asked for by Excise

4.	Guards.	59 A.	Under the head of "Guards", add as P.O.59 A the following rules:-

Treasury Guard Rules.

1. The guard shall consist of 2 Head Constables and 12 Constables and shall have in their possession 12 carbines and bayonets, 120 rounds of ammunition and 2 swords.

2. Half the guard shall be present during the day viz., 1 Head Constable and 6 constables. These 6 Constables will be relieved by the other 6 at noon. From 6 P.M. to 6 A.M. the whole guard shall be present. No man shall leave the guard without the permission in writing of the Guard officer.

3. The guard will furnish 2 sentries by day and 2 sentries by night.

The beat of No. 1 sentry during day and night will extend along the front portion of the Treasury. He shall be responsible that no unauthorised person enters the Treasury within view of his beat.

No. 2 sentry shall patrol in the passage way round and about the Treasury. He shall always be on the alert and shall not leave his post unless and until relieved by the Head Constable in charge of the Guard. He will on no account permit idlers or any person who has no business to transact to remain near the Treasury Officer's room. When the Treasury is closed for the night, and on holidays and Sundays, the beat of No. 2 sentry shall extend all round the Treasury room. He shall be responsible for the seal on the door of the strong room,

These rules have already been approved by the Hon'ble the Resident (Vide F.A.R's letter No. 6901 dated 15-11-1911) and orders are now requested only to insert them in the Station police orders as P.O.No. 59 A.

(C) 4/14. 34 A

the arms and ammunition in the guard room and whatever else may be committed to his charge by entering the sentry book and signed for by him.

4. Both sentries shall always be on the alert, alarm the Guard instantly, should anything suspicious take place, and in the case of fire; they shall also turn out the guard for inspecting officers. They shall not leave their posts until properly relieved by the Officer in Charge of the Guard.

5. Every sentry will be armed with a carbine with fixed bayonet.

6. Day duty shall commence at 6 A.M. and terminate at 6 P.M. and shall be divided into 6 watches of 2 hours each as specified below:-

1st watch	6 A.M.	to	8 A.M.
2nd "	8 A.M.	to	10 A.M.
3rd "	10 A.M.	to	12 Noon.
4th "	12 Noon	to	2 P.M.
5th "	2 P.M.	to	4 P.M.
6th "	4 P.M.	to	6 P.M.

Night duty shall commence at 6 P.M. and terminate at 6 A.M. and shall be divided into 6 watches of 2 hours each as specified below:-

1st watch	6 P.M.	to	8 P.M.
2nd "	8 P.M.	to	10 P.M.
3rd "	10 P.M.	to	12 Midnight
4th "	12 Midnight	to	2 A.M.
5th "	2 A.M.	to	4 A.M.
6th "	4 A.M.	to	6 A.M.

7. Every sentry shall be posted by the Head Constable on duty and shall be marched back to the guard and dismissed. [9]

8. The guard shall be relieved every Sunday at 6 A.M. when these rules shall invariably be read out to the relieving guard by the Head Constable on duty at the time.

9. A sentry book shall be maintained by the Head Constable of the guard in Form No. 172, showing the number and name of each constable on sentry duty as also the time when and the person by whom he was posted and relieved.

No entry shall be made in the sentry book unless and until a sentry is actually posted for duty. Every sentry shall be supplied with 10 rounds of ball ammunition which will be kept in his pouch and be examined at each relief; and the exact number of rounds found therein shall be recorded in the sentry book which must always be signed before the sentry by the Head Constable in charge of the guard at each posting and relief. The remaining ammunition will be secured in a box under lock and key, the key being kept by the Officer in charge of the Guard.

10. The Officer in charge of the guard shall be present every morning when the Treasury is opened and every evening when it is closed and it will be his duty to inspect the seals of the cash chest as well as the seals on the door of the Treasury room. Should there be the least suspicion that any of the seals have been tampered with, he will immediately intimate the fact to the Sub-Inspector in charge of the Reserve as well as the Treasury Officer.

One Head Constable will always be present on duty. The 2 Head Constables will be off-duty alternately for 8 hours, as below:-

	6 A.M. to 2 P.M.	2 P.M. to 10 P.M.	10 P.M. to 6 A.M.
Sunday	Senior Hd. Const.	Junior Hd. Const.	Senior Hd. Const.
Monday	Junior "	Senior "	Junior "
Tuesday	Senior "	Junior "	Senior "
Wednesday	Junior "	Senior "	Junior "
Thursday	Senior "	Junior "	Senior "
Friday	Junior "	Senior "	Junior "
Saturday	Senior "	Junior "	Senior "

Each Head Constable should visit his sentries at least twice during his hours of night duty, noting the time he does so in the sentry book, and reporting the same in the Guard Report for that date.

11. The guard shall be visited every day during the day and at least twice a week during the night by the Reserve Sub-Inspector.

12. A written Guard report relating to the guard shall be prepared in Form No. 173 and submitted through the Reserve Sub-Inspector to the District Superintendent of Police on the morning following the day to which the report relates.

13. A Roster of duty in Form No. 174 shall be maintained by the Officer in charge of the guard. It should be written up at 6 o'clock every morning and the men of the guard should be told off for duty for the following twenty-four hours and warned to be present punctually at the guard room. The roster, after it is written up, should be signed by the officer in charge of the guard and should then be hung up in the guard room. In the event of a constable appointed for duty being sick or absent, the next man on the roster should be posted and a note should be made on the reverse of the roster explaining how the change in turn was necessitated. Every entry in the roster should be signed.

The guard duty roster for each day should be submitted to the District Superintendent of Police with the guard repprt of that day.

14. The relieving officer shall go round with the sentry and examine, with a lantern at nights, every door, window bolt, lock and seal before giving over charge to a new sentry. If everything is found correct a note to that effect shall be made in the sentry book. Should, however, any irregularity be discovered, it should be noted in detail in the same.

The official circular seal of the Treasury Officer and the official square seal of the Treasurer must be affixed to the outside of the Treasury door and the Police Officer on sentry must see that the two seals are not broken except by order of the Treasury Officer.

15. The guard should always sleep near their arms at night and turn out at a moment's notice.

16. Neglect of guard duty will always be severely punished. It must be remembered that breaking into or attempting to break into a Treasury where there is a Police Guard is "prima facie" evidence against the Police of neglect of duty and renders the guard liable to prosecution under Section 29 of the Police Act (Act V of 1861)

17. The sentries must challenge all persons approaching their posts after dark, and should call out in a sharp tone, "Halt - who comes there?" and if the person gives a satisfactory reply the sentry will say - "Pass friend; all's well," but if the person answers "Visiting rounds", he will at once turn out the guard.

No. 446 D.

From

The Deputy Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department,

To

The Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore

Dated Delhi, the 14th January 191

Sir,

I am directed to address you on the subject of the grant of rewards to police officers.

2. The Government of India are of opinion that rewards may be paid to policemen by police officers specifically empowered to do so by rules made under Section 12 of the Police Act, 1861. The rule should state the limits up to which the police officers empowered under it may grant rewards, and should be incorporated in the Hyderabad Police Manual. Rewards may be granted under such a statutory rule for work done in the discharge of ordinary duty and need not be subject to the condition that they should have been previously offered

3. If such a rule is framed, these rewards will be payable within the limits laid down in the rule under the last sentence of Article 73 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations.

I am to add that this ruling does not apply to the grant of rewards by police officers to the general public for assisting the police in their duties. There is no restriction to your powers to grant them to non-policemen.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant,

Sir,

S.67 With reference to your letter No.519 dated 22nd January 1913, I have the honour to state that in the Madras Presidency, Superintendents of Police have been empowered to sanction rewards up to Rs.25/- Similar powers may be conferred here also.

2. Draft police orders on the subject, based on the rules in force in Madras, are submitted herewith for favour of sanction and incorporation in the Station Police Manual. The new orders may be numbered as police Order No.246(g) and (h).

3. At the conference of the Madras Police officers held recently at Vellore, there was a consensus of opinion that the amounts provided in the budget under "Rewards to informers (Secret service)" were totally insufficient for the purpose they were intended for., Also that owing to stringent rules regarding the submission of vouchers for every sum expended, that in the majority of cases it was impossible to make use of this sum for the purpose intended, many officers preferring to spend money out of their own pocket. It was resolved to ask Government to greatly greatly increase the allotment of secret service money and to accept the District Superintendent's certificate on expenditure.

I would suggest the same for the Resident's kind consideration.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that kit and line inspections are at present held by Sub Inspectors and Inspectors weekly, and the result of their inspection reported to me in a Special form, wherein are entered the names and numbers of all the men whose kits and huts have been inspected. As this report involves a considerable amount of clerical labour and as its object can equally well be achieved by the Inspectors and Sub Inspectors being required to note collectively the result of inspection in their diaries, I am of opinion that the submission of the Special report may be ordered to be discontinued.

2. If this suggestion meets with your approval, I would recommend the following amendments to the Station Police orders.

S. 22.—R. P. B.—7-1913—5,000.

For Police Order No.23 (a), (b), (c), and (d)

Substitute 12 FEB 1914

"23(a) The Inspector will once a week inspect all the police huts in his circle and report the fact with the remarks, if any, in his diary for the day.

(b) The Station House Officer will inspect the kits and accoutrements of his men at the station once a week. The result will invariably be noticed in the General Diary and in his diary for the day".

Renumber 23 (e), (f), (g) and (h) as 23 (c), (d), (e), and (f).

For police order 252(c), substitute " As a useful check in the matter of occupation of huts, Inspectors will report in their diaries the result of their inspection explaining also, if nedessary, the reason for the non-occupation of any huts".

In Police Order No. 268.

Through the District Magistrate, Civil & Military Station, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to invite a reference to the marginally noted proceedings of the Hon'ble the Resident, which are reproduced as Nos.197— 199 in the Civil and Military Station Police Orders.

No.2239 dated 12-3-1907 & No.3986 dated 30-5-1907.

2. Police Order No.199 deals with the system of punishment by black marks. On account of the disabilities it imposes, this mode of punishment is recommended in clause (11) of the Police Order not to be resorted to in all cases where a man is found fault with, and for lighter offences, therefore, reprimands and warnings are suggested.

3. In addition to these forms of punishment, in Madras it has been found advisable to adopt what is called a deferred black mark, under which, a black mark when awarded for a minor offence or to a person of previous good record is kept in abeyance for a definite period, subject to cancellation or confirmation at the end of that period according as the defaulting person's conduct has been good or otherwise in that interval. This system has worked well in Madras and may with advantage be introduced in the Civil and Military Station also. If this proposal meets with the approval of the Hon'ble the Resident, I would recommend the following addition being made at the end of clause (11):-

"For minor offences and in cases of more serious misconduct when a man has a previous good record, the punishment may be held in abeyance for a stated period ranging from three to twelve months, at the end of which the order of punishment will be cancelled or confirmed according as the offender's conduct during the period of postponement has been good or otherwise. The punishment will be entered in the defaulter book if confirmed but not otherwise."

To

P.B. Warburton, Esquire, I.C.S.,
First Assistant to the Hon'ble
the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.
(Thro' the Dist. Magte, Civil & Military Station, Bangalore)

Sir,

I have the honour to invite a reference to appendix IV of the Police Orders prescribing the period for which the records of the Police Department are to be preserved.

2. In this appendix all parts of the Police Gazettes are shown to be permanent records (Vide page 8 of the appendices, Item No.1). As these gazettes become very bulky records, I recommend that the period of destruction be limited to 5 years as is the case in the Madras Police. I accordingly recommend the following corrigendum to our Police Orders.

For

No.	Nature of records.	Period for which to be preserved.
1	Police Gazettes (all Parts)	permanent.
2	All letters received and sent etc., etc.,	----do----."
